OFFICE OF PETITIONS

In re Application of	:
Losee	:
Application No. 09/223,870	:	DECISION
Filing Date: 31 December, 1998	:
Attorney Docket No.: 12434	:

This is a decision on the petition filed on 26 May, 2006, alleging unintentional delay under 37 C.F.R. §1.137(b).

NOTES: Petitioner herein appears to be the Applicant, however, there is no indication that a revocation/power of attorney was filed herein. In this connection, Petitioner must file of record the appropriate revocation/power of attorney.

Moreover, the correspondence address of record are different than that shown on the papers submitted herein. However, Petitioner has submitted no formal change(s) in this regard.

If Petitioner desires to receive future correspondence regarding this application, the appropriate Notice of Change of Address (for correspondence) and Fee Address must be submitted.

A courtesy copy of this decision will be mailed to Petitioner.

However, all future correspondence will be directed to the address of record until such time as appropriate instructions are received to the contrary.

- (1) Any petition (and fee) for reconsideration of this decision under 37 C.F.R. §1.137(b)¹ (as to unintentional delay) must be submitted within two (2) months from the mail date of this decision. Extensions of time under 37 C.F.R. §1.136(a) are permitted. The reconsideration request should include a cover letter entitled "Renewed Petition under 37 C.F.R. §1.137(b)."
- (2) Thereafter, there will be no further reconsideration of this matter.

For the reasons set forth below, the petition under 37 C.F.R. §1.137(b) is DISMISSED.

While the Notice of Abandonment states that the application went abandoned for failure to pay the fees due, it also is noted that the Notice of Allowance/Allowability and Fees Due (copy enclosed) set forth a drawings requirement for formal drawings, which does not appear to have been addressed or otherwise satisfied by Petitioner, and—out of an abundance of caution—it is for this reason that the instant petition is dismissed.

Petitioner, upon renewed petition, should satisfy and/or otherwise evidence satisfaction of this drawings requirement.

BACKGROUND

The record reflects that:

- Petitioner failed to reply timely and properly to the final Notice of Allowance/Allowability and Fees Due mailed on 3 October, 2005 (the October 2005 Notice), with reply due under a non-extendable deadline on or before 3 January, 2006;

¹ Effective December 1, 1997, the provisions of 37 C.F.R. §1.137(b) now provide that where the delay in reply was unintentional, a petition may be filed to revive an abandoned application or a lapsed patent pursuant to 37 C.F.R. §1.137(b). a grantable petition filed under the provisions of 37 C.F.R. §1.137(b) must be accompanied by:

(1) the required reply, unless previously filed. In a nonprovisional application abandoned for failure to prosecute, the required reply may be met by the filing of a continuing application. In an application or patent, abandoned or lapsed for failure to pay the issue fee or any portion thereof, the required reply must be the payment of the issue fee or any outstanding balance thereof.

(2) the petition fee as set forth in 37 C.F.R. §1.17(m);

(3) a statement that the entire delay in filing the required reply from the due date for the reply until the filing of a grantable petition pursuant to 37 C.F.R. §1.137(b) was unintentional. The Commissioner may require additional information where there is a question whether the delay was unintentional; and

(4) any terminal disclaimer (and fee set forth in 37 C.F.R. §1.20(d)) required pursuant to 37 C.F.R. §1.137(c). (Emphasis supplied.)

- the instant application went abandoned after midnight 3 January, 2006;
- the Office mailed a Notice of Abandonment on 28 March, 2006;
- Petitioner filed the instant application (with fee), a reply in the form of fees due, and made the statement of unintentional delay—however, Petitioner has not satisfied the drawings requirement of the October 2005 Notice.

STATUTES, REGULATIONS AND ANALYSIS

Congress has authorized the Commissioner to "revive an application if the delay is shown to the satisfaction of the Commissioner to have been "unavoidable." 35 U.S.C. §133 (1994).²

The regulations at 37 C.F.R. §1.137(a) and (b) set forth the requirements for a petitioner to revive a previously unavoidably or unintentionally, respectively, abandoned application under this congressional grant of authority. The language of 35 U.S.C. §133 and 37 C.F.R. §1.137(a) is clear, unambiguous, and without qualification: the delay in tendering the reply to the outstanding Office action, as well as filing the first petition seeking revival, must have been unavoidable for the reply now to be accepted on petition.³

Delays in responding properly raise the question whether delays are unavoidable.⁴ Where there is a question whether the delay was unavoidable, Petitioners must meet the burden of establishing that the delay was unavoidable within the meaning of 35 U.S.C. §133 and 37 C.F.R. §1.137(a).⁵ And the Petitioner must be diligent in attending to the matter.⁶ Failure to do so does not constitute the care required under Pratt, and so cannot satisfy the test for diligence and due care.

² 35 U.S.C. §133 provides:

35 U.S.C. §133 Time for prosecuting application.

Upon failure of the applicant to prosecute the application within six months after any action therein, of which notice has been given or mailed to the applicant, or within such shorter time, not less than thirty days, as fixed by the Commissioner in such action, the application shall be regarded as abandoned by the parties thereto, unless it be shown to the satisfaction of the Commissioner that such delay was unavoidable.

³ Therefore, by example, an unavoidable delay in the payment of the Filing Fee might occur if a reply is shipped by the US Postal Service, but due to catastrophic accident, the delivery is not made.

⁴ See: Changes to Patent Practice and Procedure; Final Rule Notice, 62 Fed. Reg. at 53158-59 (October 10, 1997), 1203 Off. Gaz. Pat. Office at 86-87 (October 21, 1997).

⁵ See: In re Application of G, 11 USPQ2d 1378, 1380 (Comm'r Pats. 1989).

⁶ See: Diligence in Filing Petitions to Revive and Petitions to Withdraw the Holding of Abandonment, 1124 Off. Gaz. Pat. Office 33 (March 19, 1991). It was and is Petitioner's burden to exercise diligence in seeking either to have the holding of abandonment withdrawn or the application revived. See 1124 Off. Gaz. Pat. Office supra.

(By contrast, unintentional delays are those that do not satisfy the very strict statutory and regulatory requirements of unavoidable delay, and also, by definition, are not intentional.⁷))

As to the Allegations of Unintentional Delay

The requirements for a grantable petition under 37 C.F.R. §1.137(b) are the petition and fee, a statement/showing of unintentional delay, a proper reply, and—where appropriate—a terminal disclaimer and fee.

It appears, as noted above, that Petitioner has not satisfied the “reply” requirement under the regulation.

CONCLUSION

The petition under 37 C.F.R. §1.137(b) hereby is dismissed.

⁷ Therefore, by example, an unintentional delay in the reply might occur if the reply and transmittal form are to be prepared for shipment by the US Postal Service, but other pressing matters distract one’s attention and the mail is not timely deposited for shipment.

⁸ On July 15, 2005, the Central Facsimile (FAX) Number changed to (571) 273-8300. Faxes sent to the old number no longer are routed to the new number. The number (571) 273-8300 is the only facsimile number recognized for centralized delivery.
